

Report on

Solidarity Day

A Peaceful Demonstration before Press Club, Jamshoro

Organized By: DCC (Aurat Foundation) Jamshoro

In collaboration with

Omar Asghar Khan Foundation

&

Cooperation of Indus Rural Development Organization

A solidarity Day was observed in form of the peaceful demonstration in front of the Press Club, Jamshoro on 1st January 2010. This day was observed in collaboration with Omar Asghar Khan Foundation and the major cooperation of Indus Rural Development Organization. The day was organized by DCC (Aurat Foundation) Jamshoro.

More than 100 demonstrators participated in the demonstration. The majority of the participants were of women. The other participants who demonstrated in the peaceful demonstration belonged to the civil society, political parties, women activists, and NGOs, CBOs, intellectuals, writers and media persons.

Since the country is passing through the most critical period and sever political, religious, social and economic crisis. All the demonstrators of the day held in their hands play cards, banners which showed the message of love, peace and solidarity. The media persons gave a full coverage to the demonstration. The information material about peace and solidarity was distributed among the people who were present in the demonstration.

As the demonstration was held on the most populated spot which proved highly beneficial. Due to busy spot a great number of the people of the vicinity participated in the demonstration.

Among the speakers of the Solidarity Day Mr. Shokat Memon, Coordinator DCC (AF), Mr Khabar Khan Khoso, Nazim UC Jamshoro, Gotam Chana, Political activist, Rubina

Women Activist, Ms Nida, Women activist, Sain Bux Kachelo, councilor Zila Jamshoro, Bhale Dino Memon, Human rights activist, Ms Naheed political activist and others.

All of the speakers urged the people to become unified against the sever crises and make solidarity among themselves. They urged the people to become peace loving and spread the message of the peace and solidarity to every nook and corner of the city. As the peace and solidarity is the need of time so they asserted all the participants to strengthen their peace bonds and consolidates solidarity among themselves.

The day was observed with complete peace and high spirit where a great number of women participated to spread the message of solidarity and peace among all the people living in the province.

With the presence of the media persons the demonstration was given full coverage and the message of the day was conveyed in every home through print and electronic media.

In the end the demonstration after the speeches of the respectable and honorable guest ended with the promise that they would spread the message of love, peace and solidarity to all the people and would make every possible effort to consolidate solidarity among each other. With the distribution of the peace and solidarity information material the demonstration ended peacefully.

